

Koha Foundation Options

This survey will be used to decide which foundation the Koha community will align itself with while working on creating an independent foundation. More information on issues discussed this far can be found at: <http://bit.ly/4AjYin>
The Koha community has decided that it is necessary to have an official organization of some sort to help with some of the management issues associated with the Koha Open Source ILS. Rather than immediately forming a new foundation, those in attendance at the two IRC meetings, decided to start by joining an existing organization. This would be a temporary measure until the community could take the time to set up its own foundation properly. Before continuing it is important to review the organizations that have been suggested. This information can be found on the Koha Wiki: <http://bit.ly/KWkhM>. This questionnaire is not anonymous, your contact information is required so that we can validate answers. We will also track your IP address.

Answers must be made by the 25th of October 2009.
